Nomination Vignette (type in the box below)

The conference committee invites you to share a 200 – 500 word vignette about your nominee. The following criteria is requested:

- A convincing rationale for why this teacher has been inspirational.
- The vignette is interesting and effectively conveys the mood or “feel” for the teacher being portrayed.

Each vignette will be reviewed by the conference committee. The selected inspirational teachers will be sent an invitation to attend the Celebrating Teachers Luncheon as your guest – FREE of charge. Nominators are expected to register for the conference and pay the undergraduate or graduate conference registration fee.
