

SAT APRIL
7

Keynote:
Amira Dhalla
Global Participation Lead, Mozilla

"vin162 (15) copy copy4 aka Dirge of the Timetraveller." flickr photo by Vynzh <https://flickr.com/photos/vynzh/10146323953> shared under a Creative Commons (BY-NC-ND) license

- Breakout sessions
- Networking breakfast
- Leadership luncheon
- ISTE NET's Standards
- Focus on diversity and inclusion

EQUITY AND DIGITAL LITERACIES

Davis Hall
Southern Connecticut State University
8:30-2:30

How we read, write, and participate on the web has shifted our society. A knowledge economy and paths to civic engagement have emerged. Yet if we do not act we will digitize the inequity of the past. Join us as we try to build a web open, free, and inclusive for all.

Admission free but please register by emailing info@everdayliteracy.org

moz://a

Literacyeveryday

supported by the Literacy Coalition of Greater New Haven