

SET STUDENTS UP FOR SUCCESS WITH... SEL

What is SEL? Social Emotional Learning (SEL) is the process through which students better their comprehension and management of their emotions, feel and show empathy to others, establish and maintain supportive relationships, and have the ability to make responsible decisions in life.

Five Core SEL skills

81%

of parents believe that SEL is just as important as academic learning

79%

of employers say SEL skills are the most important qualities for job success

65%

of teachers in prekindergarten and elementary school want SEL in their state standards

42%

of students were less likely to be involved in physical aggression when taught SEL skills

24%

of students showed improved social behaviors and lower levels of distress with SEL programs

11%

increase in academic performance with enrollment in SEL

5-12%

decrease in dropout rates when SEL curriculum is implemented

11 to 1

The average return on investment for six evidence-based programs

