

2026 Teaching with Primary Sources Summer Onsite Workshops

Join us onsite at the Library of Congress in Washington, D.C. for a free three-day professional development workshop, where you'll learn and practice a range of hands-on, inquiry-based strategies for using primary sources with K-12 students.

Collaborate with educators nationwide as we engage with some of the millions of freely accessible, digitized historical artifacts from the Library's collections – photographs, prints, manuscripts, maps, multimedia, and more!

Learn more and apply by January 23 to one of these dates:

- July 8-10, 2026
- July 15-17, 2026
- July 22-24, 2026

<https://www.loc.gov/programs/teachers/professional-development/teacher-Institute/>

Note: workshops are offered at no cost to participants. Participants are responsible for other costs, such as travel, meals and lodging. Please direct questions to: teach@loc.gov.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS
TEACHING WITH PRIMARY SOURCES